

Southern District Health Board - Otago Constituency

Electing 4 Board Members

Lyndsay (Crackley) RACKLEY

My principal place of residence is in the Southern District Health Board - Otago Constituency area.

Lyndsay Arthur Rackley Q.S.M. Born in Dunedin. Received Queens Service Medal in the recent Queen's Birthday Honours for services to broadcasting. Started with 4XD in 1961. In 1990 was instrumental in setting up the then 4XD as a fulltime commercial station, until October 2015 was presenter of the afternoon show. Now a fill in announcer currently presenter of the Sunday breakfast show. Also known on air as (Crackley Rackley).

Currently a GOBUS driver for special needs children and urban buses also a former Ambulance Officer and a Funeral Directors Assistant.

In 2009 developed a Lymphoma cancer tumour ending in a successful treatment. Along with recent visits to some departments at Dunedin Hospital have become very aware of the workings of the Southern District Health Board and the excellent way they operate and would love to be a member of the SDHB particularly during the exciting Hospital rebuild.

Conflict of Interest Statement

To the best of my knowledge and belief, I have no conflicts of interest with the Southern District Health Board (SDHB) at the date of my notice of consent to being nominated as a candidate for the board of the SDHB, and I do not believe that any such conflicts of interest are likely to arise in the future.
